Buzzing from AAIS Primary

Unplugged!

The 'Digital Detox' has been gaining several popularity votes! With Wellness at the centre of the design of the digital detox weekends, we have been receiving several messages and reflections from students and parents that it's been a great way to engage and connect with the family. Stories from the AAIS community are here.

Inquiry remains at the heart of who we are and what we do!

Inquiry-based learning & teaching are central to our pedagogical practices and that continues! Students question, ponder, discuss, share thoughts, find answers and make connections.

"Happy times come and go, but the memories stay forever." - Anonymous

That sums what the enrichment activities: Mahogany, encantar and Library Online mean for the children. Several students have been sharing stories of their experiences, during these classes, as they interact with their friends.

"The more that you read, the more things you will know. The more that you learn, the more places you'll go." – Dr. Seuss

The Library Online Programme nurtures reading as a fundamental skill that children must engage with.

Students listened to a read-aloud of the book 'Colours of Nature' and let their imagination fly wild as they drew inspiration from the book to depict insects they see in the environment.

encantar, a Spanish word that means enchant, love, charm, captivate; is an opportunity for children to explore, engage and enjoy simple routines and activities.

At time as such this, it always helps to remember to be grateful for what we have. A note to say thank you to the family and bracelets to mark cherished friendships were some things that students have engaged in. Be Enchanted!

Mahogany, a tree with healing properties, found all over India is the inspiration for this programme, that aims to help children become socially aware, emotionally resilient, cognitively ready and culturally sensitive Akshar Arbol-ites.
